

CAMBRIDGE ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY

SPRING CONFERENCE

‘Spotting lots of amazing things’: the museums of Cambridgeshire

Saturday, February 27th, 2016

Register from 9.30am
PROGRAMME

9.55 am	Welcome	Catherine Hills, CAS President
10.00- 10.40 am	Chatteris : One million years of human history	Ian Mason, Curator Chatteris Museum
10.40- 11.20 am	'Huntingdonshire's Heritage: History at the Heart'	Sarah Russell, Director Norris Museum

11.20-11.55 am COFFEE

Alison Taylor will be running a stall of archaeological and local history books which have been donated, to raise funds for CAS

11.55- 12.40 pm	The Cromwell Museum: The Past, Present and Future	Fiona O'Mahony, , Cromwell Museum
--------------------	---	--

12.40 - 1.55 pm LUNCH available to buy in Law Faculty and at Newnham College

2.00- 2.45 pm	'Steam, Sewage and Semiconductors: Creating a Museum of Technology for Cambridge.'	Pam Halls, Museum of Technology
2.45- 3.30 pm	Making scents of the past: a multi-sensory approach to teaching prehistory at primary level.	Sarah Jane Harknett, MAA

3.30 - 4 pm TEA

4.00-4.30	Working Together, Exhibiting Together: MAA and the Cambridgeshire County Council	Imogen Gunn, MAA
4.30-5.00	The Sport of Kings: relocating the National Horseracing Museum to Palace House Newmarket	Chris Garibaldi, National Horseracing museum

Members £10.00 Non Members £15 at door

Venue: Room LG18, Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge, 10 West Road, Cambridge CB3 9DZ

